The University of Tennessee
History Department Collection
(26 boxes, 39 linear shelf feet, ca. 57,500 pieces)

The University of Tennessee History Department Collection consist of two major subdivisions; those papers related to the entire department from 1934 to 1980 and the papers belonging to Dr. LeRoy Graf, department chairman from 1965 to 1980.

The department papers deal with the normal year to year functioning of the department. Things such as university affairs, staff matters, schedules, course and test material and student files are contained in these papers.

The Graf papers cover mainly his professional life at the University of Tennessee, 1945-1980. Material related to his membership on university committees, files from the professional organizations to which he belonged, his official lecture notes, and personal papers are all contained in the Graf papers. Also included are papers related to Dr. Graf's membership on the Tennessee Historical Sites Advisory Committee and the Webb School Official Board.

NOTE: Additional History Department material is shelved under AR-55.
