3 cu. ft.

Dr. Joseph E. Johnson's personal papers were given by the Office of University Relations to the University Historian, Dr. Milton Klein. In turn, Dr. Klein gave the papers to the Archives to be included in the permanent collection. The majority of the papers cover Johnson's career when he served as Executive Assistant to the President of the University of Tennessee. A small percentage of papers cover Johnson's career when he was Vice President for Development, Chancellor at Memphis and Vice President for Development, and Executive Vice President and Vice President for Development.

An extensive assortment of speeches are included in the collection. Most of the speeches were given by Johnson; however, many of them were speeches written for Andy Holt by Johnson or his staff. These speeches are arranged according to whom the speech was given or by the subject of the speech.

The papers cover three areas: (1) general correspondence; (2) speeches; (3) and miscellaneous personal and office materials. The folders are arranged in alphabetical order under these headings.

For additional information see AR-346.
